Will RCPI transfer your personal data outside the European Economic Area?

If we transfer personal data relating to a service provider located in a country outside the EEA, we shall safeguard the transfer of this personal data by ensuring that we have European Commission approved standard contractual clauses in place with the provider.

How will RCPI store your personal data and keep it safe?

RCPI has put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

Access to your personal data is limited to those who have a business need-to-know. They will only process your personal data on our specific instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

There are established procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and to notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

How long will RCPI retain your personal data?

RCPI will retain your personal data in accordance with the RCPI Data Retention Policy.

Will applicants be subject to profiling or automated decision making?

Profiling means the automated processing of personal data to evaluate certain things about an individual. RCPI does not use any means of individual profiling.

Automated individual decision-making is when an organisation makes a decision solely by automated means without any human involvement. RCPI does not use any automated decisions making.

What are your rights in relation to your personal data?

Under the GDPR you have the following rights in relation to your personal data:

- Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a “data subject access request”). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it.
- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of your personal data to another party.

How can you raise a query or complaint about the use of your personal data?

You can address any questions or concerns about the use of your personal data with the RCPI Data Protection Officer using the contact details below.
