MASTERCLASS

Royal College of Physicians of Ireland, 6 Kildare St, Dublin - 4.00 pm Wednesday, 7 November, 2007

*Masterclass Series:
Treating the acutely ill
patient – Update and advances in management of common medical conditions presenting on call*

Part I: Respiratory Medicine Session

Programme

Keeping up to date on evolving medical practice outside your own subspecialty area is challenging. To facilitate your continuing medical education needs the RCPI is introducing this new Masterclass Series which will focus on optimum early management and what should be done in the crucial first 24 hours. Recent advances in management of common medical conditions that frequently require hospital admission will be highlighted. Early intervention that may prevent hospital admission or facilitate appropriate discharge will be also be addressed. The programme for the Respiratory Medicine session is as follows:

TIME	TITLE	SPEAKER	CHAIRPERSON
15:55	Welcome by Masterclass Series Convenor, Dr Diarmuid O'Shea
