Part IV: Endocrinology Session

Programme

Keeping up to date on evolving medical practice outside your own subspecialty area is challenging. To facilitate your continuing medical education needs the College continues with this Masterclass Series which focuses on optimum early management and what should be done in the crucial first 24 hours. Recent advances in management of common medical conditions that frequently require hospital admission will be highlighted. Early intervention that may prevent hospital admission or facilitate appropriate discharge will be also be addressed. The programme for the Endocrinology Session is as follows:

TIME	TITLE	SPEAKER	CHAIRPERSON
15:55	Welcome by Masterclass Series Convenor, Dr Diarmuid O'Shea
16:00 – 16:35	Management of a hyperglycaemic crisis in the young and old	Dr Fidelma Dunne National University of Ireland, Galway	Dr Seamus Sreenan James Connolly Memorial Hospital, Blanchardstown, Dublin
