

Trainee's Committee Trainer of the Year Award

Nomination Guidelines

The Trainer of the Year Award recognises the high standard of training, support and leadership provided by trainers in RCPI. It is an initiative of the Trainee's Committee to reward and encourage successful trainer-trainee relationships.

Eligible Candidates

RCPI- registered trainers are eligible for nomination for the award.

Nomination Guidelines

Trainees are invited to nominate a trainer, under whom they have worked within the preceding 12 months. Please include a brief (2000 character) paragraph explaining why you feel your Trainer deserves this award. Particular examples of mentorship, education and advocacy should be included. Only one nominee per Trainee will be accepted. Trainers may be nominated more than once.

Closing Date

Nominations must be received by 12pm Friday, 7th April 2023

Awards Ceremony

The award will be announced at the National Education Day for Doctors in Training on Friday, 26th May 2023, along with shortlisted nominees.

Example scoring rubric:

	Adequate	Very Good	Exemplary
Leadership
Mentorship
Empathy
Skills and Attributes
Additional qualities* *Please inform us regarding additional qualities that highlight why your chosen candidate is an excellent trainer

This is an example of a qualitative rubric that will be used to facilitate grading of Trainer of the Year award submissions. Please provide clear examples in your submission to facilitate grading and add additional qualities where relevant.